

Donations

The University receives donations from a variety of sponsors. The accounting treatment of these funds relies on the conditions attached to the money and if/how it is invested.

General Donations This is where no specific conditions on the use of the money has EF been stipulated by the donor, e.g. a contribution to a general appeal.

Specific Donations Where the donor specifies how the whole amount donated should
H be spent (excluding donations for Building projects).

Please see the following flowchart for further guidance on establishing the type of donation and the relevant source of funds.

Classification of donations

