You will take steps to ensure your operations and supply chains are trafficking and slavery free, including without limitation imposing these obligations when purchasing or sub-contracting so that multi-level supply chains are addressed; failure will constitute a material remediable breach of contract. Conviction of any offence involving slavery and human trafficking by you, your employees or sub-contractors will constitute an irremediable breach of contract.

27. Waiver

27.1 A failure at any time to enforce any provision of the Contract shall in no way affect the right at a later date to require complete performance of the Contract, nor shall the waiver of the breach of any provision be taken or held to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the provision or be a waiver of the provision itself.

28. Notice

28.1 Notices shall be deemed served on delivery, within 5 working days of first class posting in the UK (working days if posted outside the UK) or upon confirmed successful fax transmission before 5pm on a working day. Notices to us must be served on our Authorised Officer.

29. Amendment and third parties

29.1 Variations to these Conditions shall be binding only if in writing and signed by our Authorised Officer. It is not intended that any third party should have the right to enforce any term of the Contract pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

30. Discrimination

30.1 You shall not unlawfully discriminate (directly or indirectly) within the meaning and scope of any law, enactment, order or regulation relating to discrimination in the provision of services to the public or in employment (whether in race, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation, age or otherwise) or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof. You shall to the extent relevant to delivery of the Supply comply with our equal opportunities policies, which may be consulted on our website. You shall take all necessary steps to secure the observance of these provisions by all your servants, employees or agents and all sub-contractors employed in the execution of the Contract and promptly provide such information as we may reasonably require. You shall notify us immediately in writing as soon as you become aware of any investigation or proceedings brought against you under the relevant legislation. You shall co-operate with any investigation by us or a body empowered to carry out such investigations in relation to alleged or suspected discrimination.

31. Confidentiality

31. We each undertake to the other to keep all Confidential Information confidential, except if consent has been given or to the extent that:

(a) disclosure or use is necessary by the relevant party for the proper and effective performance of its obligations under the Contract (including disclosure by either party to its insurers and professional advisers); or

(b) disclosure is required by law to any government, governmental department, agency, regulatory or fiscal body or authority.

You shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that your employees, agents and sub-consultants comply with this Condition as if parties to the Contract.
